Hello,

Today morning at around 10 am few officials from UPPCB visited the site. I was very surprised that I wasn't informed of any visit for checking STP. Interestingly builder, who is in question, was informed and his representative were present in full strength. Few residents, which I wasn't part of, joined the officials in their inspection. Residents had many concerns about the STP, but sadly, the officials were not very keen on entertaining any questions.

I was called up at very last moment. The official took my phone number and went away. May I know the next course of action??

Regards
Ashutosh
